

HAUN of Scott County KY, early 1800's

I have so many bits and pieces of Haun data, I thought I'd post them in case it would be helpful.

First, I am descended through Catherine Haun (born about 1819), daughter of Adam Haun, son of Peter of Holland.

Peter Haun came from Holland with his three sons and daughters, settling in Scott County sometime between 1800-1810. Peter Haun died in 1815, Scott County. His intestate records indicate these are his children:

John Haun (1783-1833) wife Catherine Winter (Kitty)

Henry Haun wife Sarah (Sallie)

Adam Haun (1785-1845) wife Charlotte

Elizabeth Haun Proctor, husband Benjamin

Margaret Haun Hedger, husband Zachariah

Mary Haun Towsley, husband ? (too hard to read the record)

Some researchers say John Haun married Catherine in PA, others say Scott County. So far a marriage record has not been found for any of the three Haun brothers.

JOHN- He died of Cholera in 1833 in Scott County, and seemed to have many children. The William Haun born 12-11-1809 and died 4-11-1891 in Kansas seems to have been John's son. The timing is right. William married Notty Ann.

HENRY- Don't know a lot about him. He is consistently in the tax records and census in Scott County and seems to have lived his whole life there, marrying Sarah. He died sometime after 1840.

ADAM- Married Charlotte, probably in PA or Scott County sometime after about 1815. Sometime after 1840, Adam moved from Scott County to Fayette County, where he died on 30 August 1845, as reported by the newspaper. They stated he was 60 y/o, and that is where I came up with his birth year.

A James Haun, was Catherine Haun's bondsman when she married Richard Jones in Fayette County in 1844, even though Adam was still alive at the time of the ceremony. I am guessing James is either the son of Adam or John. Catherine Haun Jones died in Owen Co in 1855, and her death record states Scott County as her birth place, and Adam and "C" Haun as her parents. I also suspect the Mary "Hawn" who married in Fayette County to Patrick Doyle is Adam's daughter as well. During the first part of the 1800's this Haun family seemed to be the only one in Scott County and Fayette.

Here is census data for our Hauns:

1820 Scott County Census

Adam

Henry

John

The three brothers are the only Hauns in Scott County until 1840.

1830 Scott County Census

1840 Scott County(note: no Hauns listed in Fayette County)

Adam Haun (sometimes transcribed as Hann for all 4 men)

NOTE.....in ALL OF Kentucky, there are only two other Hauns who were also born in KY, in other words, could POSSIBLY be part of our Hauns, but no evidence as of yet:

Daniel Haun Knox County born KY in 1831

Mary A Haun McCracken County born KY in 1832

1880 Hauns

Scott County, Stamping Ground(only Haun listed)

James Haun age 55HollPA

Falls, Betty age 49

 Note:the above James Haun says his father was born in "Holl" and his mother PA.I think he is the son of John, given the birth place of his parents, and the fact that his oldest son is named John, but I don't have other evidence.This again indicates the family did indeed come from Holland.**

Some random Haun bits:

Some Scott County Marriages:
Haun, James W to Mary Jane Falls 11 Sept 1848(this appears to be the James in the 1880 Scott County Census)

Haun, Matthew J. to Nancy Jane Bailey 5 Apr 1849
Haun, Catherine Jane to John Q Graves 24 Feb 1846
Haun, Lydia to George Ravenscraft 2 Dec 1839
Haun, Catherine to Jarvis Thomson 7 May 1837 Note:I found him in the 1880 census, but he had remarried after she died in 1842.

Haun, James to Pasty Hurst, dau of John of Fayette County Sep 1, 1831

Haun Cemetary 1/2 mile from Johnson's Mill on Newton Pike in Scott County:

Catherine Thomson d 1842(wife of Jarvis)
Elizabeth Haun b 1823 d 1845 age 22
Higard Haun b 1818 d 1838 age 20

So that's all I have.....I do think the Haun name was Americanized and in Holland is likely something like Hon.Feel free to add any more info for this family.Scott County can be hard to research cause many of the records burned, so sometimes the smallest family detail really helps!!:-)
