

The Last Will and Testament of James Perrin 18 July 1821

In the name of God Amen

I, James Perrin of the parish of Fremington in the County Of Devon being sick and weak in body but of sound and proper mind and memory praised be God for the same, make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following (that is to say) First and principally I commend my soul with the utmost humility into the hand of Almighty God my creator hoping through the merits of Jesus Christ to obtain pardon and remissions of all my sins. I give and bequeath to my daughter Ann Dowes the wife of Thomas Dowes one pound of good and lawful money. I give and bequeath to my daughter Mary Dows the wife of Martin Dowes one pound of like lawful money. Then, I give and bequeath to my daughter Jane Perrin Twenty pounds of good and lawful money and one of my featherbeds to be delivered and disposed of at discretion of my executors hereinafter named. I give and bequeath to my son James Perrin one pound of good and lawful money. Then I give and bequeath to my son John Perrin twenty pounds of like and lawful money and one of my feather beds to be delivered and disposed of by me executors hereinafter named. Then I give unto my dear and beloved wife Ann Perrin who I nominate certificate and appoint executrix with my son George Perrin as executor together of this my last will and testament (hereby revoking all other produced wills by me at any time hereinfor made) all my goods and chattels and personal estate whatsoever I will that all my debts and funeral charges be paid and discharged by my executrix and executor before named which I also charge with the payment of my said legacies within twelve calendar months of my decease in witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the 18th day of July in the year of our lord one thousand eight hundred and twenty one. Signed James Perrin.

Signed Sealed and published by the said testator James Perrin for and as his last Will And Testament in the presence of us who have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto in the presence of the said testator.

Witnesses Emanuel Mullins George Balesdon